June was a relatively slow month for the Police Department as the agency prepares to transition to a new Chief. There was a call involving a domestic disturbance and another call involving a dispute between a homeowner and a potential property buyer. Both calls were handled without incident, and an extra patrol was done on the property for sale for a short time. The PD will be participating in an upcoming Standardized Field Sobriety Test Course taught by an expert IMPD Officer. This training will include a "wet lab" with live drinking subjects so that the officers can observe impairment first-hand. This will occur on July 5th.

Respectfully,

Bryan Wolfe, Police Liaison
Town of Homecroft
